Travel Safe This Holiday Season!

With the holidays around the corner, you may find you and your family traveling more. Our midwestern winters can be very unpredictable and you don't want to end up stranded without some helpful items in your car to keep you safe.

We recommend that families use this as a checklist of items you should keep in your car when traveling in the winter.

Be sure to check these websites to see how road conditions are before traveling!

MENTAL HEALTH 101

Friday, Jan 7 | 8:30 - 9:30am | CMTEA, 1200 W 21 ST

HOSTED BY:

A PRESENTATION TO COMMUNITY, BY NAMI SD, FOCUSING ON THE BASICS OF MENTAL HEALTH & MENTAL HEALTH CONDITIONS

ALL COMMUNITY MEMBERS, 18+ ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND!

BENEFITS of MENTAL HEALTH 101: provide a better understanding of how mental health conditions can affect a person's life | help to reduce the stigma of surrounding mental health | give you confidence when helping those who are experiencing a mental health challenge | help you to recognize early signs and risks of a mental health condition

Scammers are expected to steal over $3 billion in 2022.

Most computer users are aware that scams exist and are almost always more prevalent during the holidays. Anyone who has suffered the consequences of these individuals usually comments "I should have known better..." after the fact. Here is a website that provides some very good tips for preventing losses to scam artists and some great reminders for all staff. Thank you to PC's Plus for the article below!
