Hoffners Recognized as Yankton Citizens Of The Year

Jake and Sandy Hoffner have a long history of serving the Yankton community – even though they weren't originally a part of it. They started off as farmers in North Dakota before they moved to Yankton in 1988. Jake bought a crop dusting business and Sandy taught at Yankton High School. Since then, the couple has contributed to many community-involved organizations.

Yankton Thrive congratulates the both of you on the well-deserved title!
